STICK TO IT.

If there is one enterprise on earth that a quitter should leave entirely alone, it is advertising. To make a success of advertising, one must be prepared to stick like a barnacle on a boat's bottom. He should know before he begins that he must spend money—lots of it. Somebody must tell him that he cannot hope to reap results commensurate with his expenditures early in the game. Advertising does not jerk; it pulls. It begins very gently at first, but the pull is steady. It increases day by day and year by year until it exerts an irresistible power.—John Wana-maker.

Eight Counties Are Ready To Help Build The Ohio River Route

Between 300 and 400 Visitors Gather In Cloverport In Interest of Federal Aid Roads.

Rodman Wiley Makes Principal Address. Some Opposition To Proposed Route.

It was quite evident from the good roads meeting held in Cloverport, on Thursday of last week, that Kentuckians of the Northern Section of the State, particularly those of the counties bordering the Ohio, have come to realize the necessity of good roads and with the realization, they have gotten the determination to have them.

It was estimated that there were between three and four hundred visitors here that day including representatives from Jefferson, Hardin, Meade, Breckinridge, Hancock, Daviess, Union, Ohio, Henderson and Muhlenburg Counties.

The results of the meeting were most encouraging in regard to the Ohio River Route, that being the main object of the gathering, and it seems a certain fact that the counties of Hardin, Meade, Breckinridge, Daviess and Hancock will get the State and Federal aid in building the Ohio River Route through Owensboro, Hawesville, Skillman, Cloverport and Hardinsburg.

Altho there is some opposition to this route. There was a big delegation from Ohio county, some of them making a strong plea to get the federal highway through Fordsville. While there were others from Whitesville and Pellville who wanted the highway through there in instead of going through Hawesville.

However, Rodman Wiley, the State Road Commissioner made it very plain that the route would be determined by the counties that made the largest appropriations. He said, "The money is ready; all that is necessary is the sanction of your fiscal courts."

The Judges of Daviess, Hancock, Breckinridge, Meade and Hardin gave the audience the assurance that their counties would accept the federal aid. Representatives from Henderson, Union and Muhlenburg counties said that these counties too were ready to help build the highway from Henderson to Owensboro.

Judge Geo. Newman of Hawesville was elected permanent chairman of the Louisville-Owensboro highway, and Paul Lewis was made Secretary.

A motion was made and carried that a committee composed of Rodman Wiley, State Road Commissioner, with County Judges and County Road Engineers from Henderson, Daviess, Hancock, Hardin, Meade and Breckinridge be appointed to determine the most practical routes, and see that each county makes its financial arrangements.

The first delegation for the meeting arrived on the 9 o'clock train coming from Skillman, Hawesville, Owensboro, Henderson, Morganfield, Hartford, Whitesville and Pellville. There were so many among these arrivals that it was soon found necessary to hold the meeting some place other than the Bushman Theatre, so arrangements were made to hold it in the Methodist church.

Lunch Served At 11:30 O'clock.

Very soon after the Louisville, Brandenburg, Bewleyville, Irvington, Hardinsburg, Harned, Garfield, Glen Dean, McQuady, Falls of Rough and Fordsville delegations got here, the visitors were invited to partake of a most palatable lunch served by the women of Cloverport.

Mr. Herman Birkhead of Owensboro made a motion to give the citizens and women of Cloverport a rising vote of thanks for their hospitality.

Those who left on the evening train at 7 o'clock were also given their supper before leaving.

Meeting Opened Promptly.

The meeting was promptly opened at 1 o'clock by Mayor Barry of Cloverport. Then Judge Newman was made chairman by acclamation and Paul Lewis was unanimously elected secretary.

The church, which has a seating capacity of about five hundred, had every seat filled and there was a large number of persons who had to stand during the entire time.

Women Interested.

There were quite a few women present.

MAKING GOOD AS ASSIST CASHIER

Former Judge Dowell Proves As Successful A Banker As A County Judge.

As Mr. D. D. Dowell rounds out the second year of his position as assistant cashier of the Bank of Hardinsburg and Trust Co., the directors of the Bank are more and more pleased with Mr. Dowell's service.

It has been truly said that "energy will do anything in this world, and no opportunities will make a man without it". Such is true in the case of Mr. Dowell. When he was a mere youngster, he started clerking in Mr. L. B. Richardson store in Garfield. Having expended his energy there, he decided to go into a larger place so he came to Hardinsburg, just ten years ago. He got into politics and served as deputy county clerk under Mr. Herbert Beard, and later was elected Judge of Breckinridge county for four years.

After being Judge, Mr. Dowell accepted this position offered him in the Bank or Hardinsburg, and his popularity and his efficiency have proven that he is a man of energy; being a man of much thought and ability.

The directors of the Bank continue to congratulate themselves on having secured Mr. Dowell for this important position.

NATION WIDE DAY FOR PRAYER NAMED.

Members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, will on April 16th pray for a church-wide and spirit-led revival in America. The Methodists are not planing any close communion in the matter, but are asking all churches and church people in America to join them.

Conditions of the times in which we are living and the great need of the world for spiritual rejuvenation are the factors which have suggested this idea of the special day of prayer to the Methodists. Leaders of the denomination hope that the idea will spread rapidly throughout the country so that by the time April 16th arrives every Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian and all other Protestant denominations will be praying for the great spiritual awakening throughout the world.

The Methodist have particularly caught a vision of the need of this revival because of the Centenary movement of that church, a movement to revivify all of their congregations from one end of Methodism to the other.
